

Nareh Arghamanyan

Highly acclaimed for her unique style, colourful tone and dazzling virtuosity, Nareh Arghamanyan is one of the promising talents of her generation. Following a highly successful debut at the Goldener Saal of Vienna's prestigious Musikverein with the Radio-Symphonieorchester Vienna, Nareh Arghamanyan gave her Swedish debut playing Prokofiev's popular third piano concerto with the Royal Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra in 2015. Last seasons highlights included 4-week tour in the US with Helsingborg Symphony Orchestra, as well as recitals in Musikverien, Vienna and Berlin Philharmonie, Berlin.

Jens Elvekjær

This Danish pianist has a strong solo career in Denmark. Educated in Copenhagen and Vienna, Jens has a wide repertoire with a particular fine understanding of the romantic period – Schubert and Beethoven. Recognised also for his performances of contemporary Danish concertos, he frequently give recitals both in Denmark and the United States. He also performs with his chamber music group, Trio con Brio Copenhagen.

Lukas Geniušas

Winner of First Prize, Gold Medal and Audience Prize in the Bachauer Competition 2010 and Silver Medal in the Chopin Competition 2011, he recorded Rachmaninov 3 Piano Concerto at only 16. His recent victory, and one of the most important, is the Silver Medal at the XV Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow in 2015. Recently he had his debut in Louvre, Paris and has an upcoming concert in Wigmore Hall and is a frequent guest at Verbier Festival.

Nordic Artists Management

Håvard Gimse

Håvard has firmly established himself as one of Norway's leading musicians with an expansive repertoire including an impressive list of 30 performed piano concertos. Heavily in demand as both soloist and chamber musician he is the accompanist of choice for many of Scandinavia's finest artists. As a solo artist he has performed extensively throughout Scandinavia, with orchestras such as Stockholm, Oslo and Bergen Philharmonics, Finnish Radio and Danish Radio Symphony Orchestra.

Saskia Giorgini

Winner of the International Mozart Competition in Salzburg in 2016, Saskia Giorgini is considered one of the most interesting pianists of the young generation. Upcoming performances include: Muzikverein solo debut with a Mozart recital, concerts with Sønderjyllands Symfoniorkester with Simon Gaudenz, concerts with with Klassische Philharmonie Bonn, Herbert Beissel, Risør Chamber Music Festival and Eppaner Sommer Lied Festival with Ian Bostridge.

Christian Ihle Hadland

Recognised as one of Norway's most exciting piano talents Christian has performed with all of the leading orchestras in Scandinavia. Last season he performed at the Wigmore Hall, as well as performing with BBC Philharmonic, Orchestra National de Lyon and Bergen Philharmonic. Aside from performances with Helsinki Philharmonic and several re-invites to Wigmore Hall, this season also will include two CD releases, at Hyperion and Simax respectively.

Nordic Artists Management

Elisabeth Leonskaja

Among the most celebrated pianists of our time and a true artist of excellence, her early musical development was shaped by her collaboration with Sviatoslav Richter. She has appeared as soloist with virtually all the leading orchestras, including the New York Phil, the LPO, RPO the Tonhalle, Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, and Gewandhausork. under such leading names as: Kurt Masur, Christoph Eschenbach, Christoph von Dohnanyi, and Maris Jansons.

Alexander Melnikov

Alexander Melnikov graduated from the Moscow Conservatory under Lev Naumov. His most formative musical moments in Moscow include an early encounter with Sviatoslav Richter, who thereafter regularly invited him to festivals in Russia and France. He was awarded important prizes at eminent competitions such as the International Robert Schumann Competition in Zwickau (1989) and the Concours Musical Reine Elisabeth in Brussels (1991). Known for his often unusual musical and programmatic decisions, Alexander Melnikov discovered a career long interest in historically informed performance practice at an early age. In the 2018/19 season Alexander Melnikov will tour his project “The Man with the Many Pianos”, where he performs a solo recital on different instruments reflecting the periods in which the works were written. Next to concerts with Mahler Chamber Orchestra and the Deutsche Kammerphilharmonie Bremen he continues his collaboration with Camerata Salzburg and as an Artistic partner with Tapiola Sinfonietta.

Nordic Artists Management

Natasha Paremski

With her consistently striking and dynamic performances, pianist Natasha Paremski reveals astounding virtuosity and voracious interpretive abilities. She has performed worldwide with major orchestras including Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Tonhalle Orchester Zürich, Moscow Philharmonic and National Taiwan Symphony Orchestra. In September 2010, she was awarded the Classical Recording Foundation's Young Artist of the Year. Natasha has given recitals at London's Wigmore Hall, the Auditorium du Louvre in Paris, Schloss Elmau, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern Festival, Verbier Festival.

Christopher Park

"Christopher Park is a pianist who captivates with his fascinating technical mastery, astounding musical maturity, and a particularly intense performance style" - this was the explanation given by the jury by the Stiftung Schleswig-Holstein Music Festival upon awarding Christopher Park the renowned Leonard Bernstein Award 2014.

Francesco Piemontesi

Recipient of the Queen Elisabeth Competition in Brussels and a Borletti-Buitoni Trust Fellow, Piemontesi has made guest appearances at the highest level including BBC Proms, Lucerne Festival, Edinburgh Festival, Schleswig-Holstein, Martha Argerich Project, Ruhr, Rheingau, and Bad Kissingen. He nurtures a special interest in chamber music, having played with Renaud und Gautier Capuçon, Daniel Müller-Schott, Jörg Widmann and the Ebène quartet. This season includes performances with Orchestra de Paris, Mozarteum Salzburg and venues such as Wigmore Hall and Verbier Festival, to name a few.

Nordic Artists Management

Sir András Schiff

This world-renowned and acclaimed Hungarian pianist is in demand over the entire world. He rarely performs with orchestra, and when he does, he prefers to lead the orchestra himself. Mr. Schiff is a highly accomplished chamber musician and throughout the recent seasons has given recitals playing all Beethoven Piano Sonatas. Highlights in Scandinavia include appearances at the Bergen and Lofoten Intern. Festivals, Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra and Danish Radio.

Marianna Shirinyan

Armenian-born Marianna Shirinyan is one of the most creative and sought after pianists in Europe today. Her vibrant and virtuos musicianship puts her in demand, both as soloist and as chamber musician. She has received Danish Broadcasting Corporation's prestigious P2 award for her contribution to Danish music life and the critics prize of the association of Danish critics. She is a frequent guest at a string of international music festivals, among them the Schleswig-Holstein Music Festival, the Schwetzingen Festspiele, MDR Summer Music Festival, Festspillene in Bergen. Shirinyan is a professor of piano at the Norwegian Academy of Music in Oslo, a Steinway artist and artistic direction of the Oremandsgaard Chamber Music Festival in Denmark.

VIOLIN

Christina Åstrand

Since her soloist debut in 1990 she has become a frequent soloist with Scandinavian orchestras. Several Danish composers have composed and dedicated works to her and she has recorded works by Gade, Lange-Müller and Rued Langaard. She is one of the few violinists in the world who plays Ligeti's Violin Concerto and her recording of this with Per Nørgård's Violin Concertos with DR Symphony Orchestra/ Dausgaard won the prestigious Diapason D'or.

Johan Dalene

Just 18, Johan Dalene is continuing to impress the international music scene. In 2017 Johan was accepted to the Norwegian Crescendo program, which enabled him to work closely with Leif Ove Andsnes, Janine Jansen and Gidon Kremer. Last season he appeared as soloist with national orchestras as Gävle Symphony Orchestra and Jönköping Sinfonietta, as well as Jakarta Symphony Orchestra, Kremerata Baltica and Oslo Philharmonic. This season includes several exciting projects, among these recording with renowned record label BIS and his debut with Stockholm Philharmonic. 2018-2019 is also the season where Johan is artist-in-residence with Norrköping Symphony Orchestra.

Isabelle Faust

Isabelle Faust captivates her listeners through her insightful and faithful interpretations, based on a thorough knowledge of the historical context of the works as well as her attention to current scholarship. Over the course of her career, Isabelle Faust has regularly performed or recorded with world-renowned conductors including John Eliot Gardiner, Philippe Herreweghe, Daniel Harding, Bernard Haitink and Andris Nelsons. During recent years Isabelle Faust developed a close relationship with the late Claudio Abbado and performed and recorded under his baton.

Nordic Artists Management

Vadim Gluzman

Highlights of his 2017-18 season include appearances with the Boston Symphony under Tugan Sokhiev and debut performances with the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra under Riccardo Chailly. He tours Europe in a piano trio with pianist Yevgeny Sudbin and cellist Johannes Moser, including engagements at London's Wigmore Hall and Berlin's Konzerthaus, and will appear as soloist with the Toronto, Vancouver, Oregon, Göteborg and Lucerne Symphonies, the Czech Philharmonic and the Finnish Radio Orchestra. Gluzman will lead performances with the Vienna Chamber Orchestra and the ProMusica Chamber Orchestra in Columbus, Ohio, where he continues in his fourth year as Creative Partner and Principal Guest Artist.

Guro Kleven Hagen

Firmly established in the Nordic as one of the best violinists of her generation, Guro's recording of Prokofiev's second and Bruch's first violin concertos with the Oslo Philharmonic Orchestra was chosen to be "Editor's Choice of the Month" in the Gramophone Magazine August 2014. Her most recent recording «Fait pleurer les songs», including sonatas by Ravel, Poulenc and Prokofiev, was released May 2017. This season will include her debut with Stockholm Philharmonic.

Chloë Hanslip

Chloë Hanslip has already established herself as an artist of distinction on the international stage. Prodigiously talented, she made her BBC Proms debut in 2002 and her US concerto debut in 2003, and has performed at major venues in the UK (Royal Festival Hall, Wigmore Hall), Europe (Vienna Musikverein, Hamburg Laeiszhalle, Paris Louvre and Salle Gaveau, St Petersburg Hermitage) as well as Carnegie Hall. Highlights of 2018/2019 include performances with Helsinki Philharmonic, Bournemouth Symphony and a 6 date tour with the Russian State Symphony Orchestra.

Nordic Artists Management

Sergej Krylov

Russian Sergej Krylov has worked with a number of prestigious orchestras, including the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, the English Chamber Orchestra, the Camerata Academica Salzburg, the Czech Philharmonic, and with conductors such as Vladimir Ashkenazy, Jutaka Sado, Dmitri Kitajenko, Franz Welser-Most and Mstislav Rostropovich. In 15/16 he performs with Helsinki Philharmonic, Copenhagen Phil and Gothenburg Symphony Orchestra. Virtuous and versatile he also easily takes on the double role as soloist and conductor when offered the opportunity.

Jiyeon Lee

Jiyeon Lee is an aspiring soloist, performing with renowned orchestras such as the Philharmonia Orchestra, Orchestre National de Belgique, Orquesta de Valencia, Swedish Chamber Orchestra, Odense, Indianapolis, KBS and Korean Symphony Orchestra, and the philharmonic orchestras of Poznan, Seoul and Gyeonggi. Her debut recording of Korngold & Nielsen Concertos (released May 2018, Orchid Classics) has met critical acclaim and named Editor's Choice in Gramophone as well as on BBC Music Magazine. Her recital album titled 'Mythes' featuring works by Szymanowski, Bartok, Stravinsky and Ravel on Champs Hill records is to be released in September 2018.

Liya Petrova

Enthralling the audience with her musical and stylistic sensibility, spellbinding violinist Liya Petrova has won various prizes, such as the Mozart Medal, the Louis Spohr and the 1st prize at the Carl Nielsen Violin Competition 2016. She has performed with Brussels Philharmonic, Philharmonie Luxembourg and Orchestre de Chambre de Lausanne. She is supported by Deutscher Musikrat, Deutsche Stiftung Musikleben and Fondation d'entreprise Banque Populaire.

Nordic Artists Management

Christian Svarfvar

Swedish violinist Christian Svarfvar has emerged as one of Scandinavia's most sought-after concert violinists. Praised for his beautiful tone, impassioned virtuosity and drive for inventive programs, he has captivated audiences all over the world. After graduating with top honors, Christian was appointed “Rising Star” by the ECHO Organization, which led to concerts all over the world; Musikverein, The Concertgebouw, Cité de la Musique, Palais des Beaux-Arts, Carnegie Hall, Kölner Philharmonie, Luxembourg Philharmonie, Tchaikovsky Hall and many others.

Emmanuel Tjeknavorian

Since being awarded the Best Interpretation of the Sibelius Violin Concerto and Second Prize at the International Jean Sibelius Violin Competition in 2015, Emmanuel Tjeknavorian has gained international attention. In his young career, he has already performed with orchestras such as the Wiener Symphoniker, the Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Frankfurt Radio Symphony, the Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Helsinki Philharmonic Orchestra, the Camerata Salzburg and the Munich Chamber Orchestra under the baton of Adam Fischer, Keith Lockhart, Hannu Lintu, Cornelius Meister, Andrés Orozco-Estrada, Kristiina Poska and John Storgårds. Emmanuel Tjeknavorian plays an Antonio Stradivari (Cremona) violin.

VIOLA

Eivind Ringstad

Winning the prestigious Eurovision Young Musician in Vienna in 2012, Eivind Ringstad proved himself as one of the most promising viola players of his generation. Eivind made his debut with the Oslo Philharmonic Orchestra in 2013, and has since performed regularly with many of Norway's leading chamber festivals. In 2016 Eivind was one among six talented musicians/ensembles chosen for the BBC Radio 3 New Generation Artist Scheme - a great platform of support to start off an international career.

Lars Anders Tomter

The international career of "The Giant of the Nordic Viola" (The Strad) took off in 1987/88 when he toured in the US and Germany with the Norwegian Chamber Orchestra under director Iona Brown. Since then his appearances as a viola soloist has been greeted with the highest public and critical acclaim throughout Europe and the US. Tomter is engaged to perform and record Ruders' Concerto for Viola and Orchestra with Aarhus Symphony Orchestras (2015). Other appearances include chamber music concerts in Budapest, appearance in Vinterfest, Sweden and the Oslo Philharmonic, playing Hovland's Viola Concerto.

CELLO

Nicolas Altstaedt

German/French cellist Nicolas Altstaedt is renowned for his creativity and versatility, in his captivating performances of repertoire on both gut and modern strings. Awarded the Credit Suisse Young Artist Award in 2010. Since then, he has performed worldwide with orchestras such as Tonhalle Orchestra Zurich, Tokyo Symphony Orchestra, Tokyo Metropolitan Orchestra, Melbourne Symphony Orchestra and all the BBC Orchestras working with conductors Sir Roger Norrington, Sir Neville Marriner, Vladimir Ashkenazy and Andrew Marcon amongst others.

Mischa Maisky

Awarded for a high number of his recordings and the only cellist to have studied with both Rostropovich and Piatigorsky, Maisky is something of a phenomenon. Maisky made his London debut in 1976 with an orchestral concerts series, beginning with the Royal Phil. Orchestra. Since then he has been enthusiastically received in all the major musical centres of the world. He is in great demand as a chamber musician, particularly known for his extensive collaboration with Martha Argerich.

Amalie Stalheim

Amalie Stalheim is one of the most promising young cellists in Scandinavia today. Recently she won the 1st prize in “Solistpriset 2018” and she has just been announced Crescendo artist, which will mean close collaboration with Leif Ove Andsnes and Janine Jansen. Upcoming highlights in season 2018/19 include performances with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in Stockholm, Swedish Radio Orchestra, Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra, The Norwegian Radio Orchestra, Norrland Opera Orchestra, Wermland Opera Orchestra. Musica Vitae, Norrbotten Chamber Orchestra, Malmö Symphony Orchestra.

Nordic Artists Management

Torleif Thedéen

Torleif Thedéen performs as soloist all over the world. As a dedicated chamber musician he has performed in venues like Wigmore Hall, Carnegie Hall and Concertgebouw. Collaborates with Janine Jansen and Maxim Rysanov. He is a highly respected teacher and has been professor at the Royal Academy of Music, Copenhagen and now holds a position as professor at the Edsberg Academy in Stockholm.

Alisa Weilerstein

A natural virtuoso hailed for her impassioned musicianship and expressive range she is internationally renowned as one of the premiere soloists and chamber musicians of her generation. She has appeared with many prestigious orchestras and festivals. Her first recording for Decca was with Staatskapelle Berlin and Daniel Barenboim. Firmly establishing herself in the Nordic region, this season includes performances with Danish Radio Symphony Orchestra and Gothenburg Symphony Orchestra. She was newly appointed Artistic partner with Trondheim Solistene.

FLUTE

Ulla Miilmann

Since the astonishing age of 22, Ulla Miilmann has held the position as solo flutist in the Danish National Symphony Orchestra. Her warm and generous sound entices the audience and has put her in demand as soloist with this orchestra as well as other symphony orchestras in Denmark and abroad. She is a dedicated chamber musician and has performed all over Scandinavia with many respected ensembles and soloists.

Juliana Koch

Juliana Koch is one of Europe's most sought after oboists, both as an experienced orchestral principal and a charismatic concerto soloist. She is a laureate of the 2017 ARD International Music Competition in Munich, where she was ranked highest among the prizewinners and also took the Audience Prize and the Osnabrücker Prize. She occupies the Principal Oboe chair at London Symphony Orchestra with Music Director Sir Simon Rattle. Juliana has appeared as a Guest Principal with the Orchestra of the Bavarian State Opera and the orchestra of Teatro alla Scala in Milan. She has performed concertos with the Bavarian Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Munich Chamber Orchestra and more, and has worked with conductors including Daniel Barenboim, Kirill Petrenko, Riccardo Chailly, Zubin Mehta and Pierre Boulez. Juliana is an active chamber musician and has performed at some of Europe's most prestigious festivals. In 2017 she was awarded the Scholarship of the Deutsche Musikwettbewerb and was selected as featured artist in the Germany's Young Artists Concerts. She plays a Marigaux M2 oboe.

CLARINET

Paul Meyer

Paul Meyer is one of the world's foremost clarinetists and is increasingly sought-after as a conductor at the highest level. He regularly works with some of the great orchestras of the world, from the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra in Amsterdam and the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande in Geneva to the Russian State Symphony Orchestra in Moscow and the NHK Symphony Orchestra in Tokyo. As a clarinetist, Paul is known as a soloist, chamber musician and teacher. Some of the most important composers in recent history have written for him. As a conductor, Paul enjoys relationships with some of the most distinguished orchestras in Europe and beyond.

Nordic Artists

Management